

ETHIOPIA ISSUE GOES TO LEAGUE COUNCIL

Loan Council Plan Faces Rejection At Ottawa Conference

Method of Refunding Debts Becomes Involved Question; Continuing Committee Named on Financial Problems; Procedure for Amending B.N.A. Act Is Agreed; Plenary Session of Conference To-morrow

Developments at the Dominion-Provincial conference in Ottawa to-day as reported in dispatches were:
 1. Likelihood the proposed loan council to supervise Dominion and provincial loans would be rejected.
 2. Rejection of the Hepburn plan to refund all provincial debts at a maximum of 3 per cent interest.
 3. Settlement of a course for amending the B.N.A. Act.
 4. A new proposal, that the provinces vacate the income tax field and the Dominion turn over sales tax revenue to the provinces.
 5. Plenary session called for to-morrow to discuss committee reports.
 6. Plans made to appoint continuing committees when present conference rises.

PREMIERS MEET ON TAX RIGHTS

Proposed Dominion Relief Contribution to B.C. Be Doubled

Ottawa, Dec. 12.—With no agreement reached between the provinces and the Dominion on control of borrowings and refunding, Charles A. Dunning, federal Minister of Finance, has called a meeting of the provincial finance ministers for to-night.

Little progress has been made on the joint subject so far and it is expected objections which provincial representatives have made to the plan, which calls for the Dominion Loan Board to control borrowing and refunding of the Dominion Government, will be explained.
 Proposed taxation adjustments are being studied with considerable interest. The federal government has tentatively suggested it might hand over federal sales tax receipts to the provinces to cover unemployment costs.
 These are estimated at approximately $80,000,000 a year.
 In return for this, however, the provinces would be asked to surrender the income tax field, Hon. John Hart, B.C. Finance Minister, is understood. (Turn to Page 6, Col. 2)

Merchants Happy As Brisk Christmas Trade Sweeps Canada

Shoppers Are No Longer Window Gazers; Big Rise in Automobile and Luxury Gifts Reported; Real Estate Up

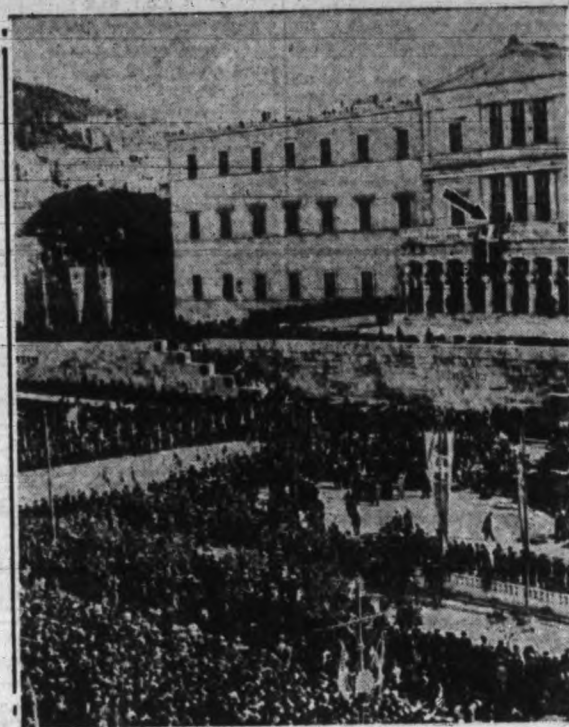

Christmas shopping has proved to the other side of the plate glass. All across Canada, according to the Canadian Press, smiles are creating the retail countenance, for the window-shoppers of the last few years are inside now with money in their pockets.
 Improvement in the business atmosphere preliminary to the actual movement of packs down the chimney is notable in two ways—increased volume and improved quality.
 This insistence on the best is remarked particularly among eastern storekeepers, while those on the Prairies and the Pacific Coast, people were considering ways and means to get stockings big enough to hold a house or an automobile, so evident was the jump in real estate and automobile sales.
 Merchants of the Maritimes predicted the most profitable Yuletide season in six years.
 The improvement was particularly noticeable in Prince Edward Island, where better prices for farm products brought out more money.
 Increased sales were due in some measure to delayed trade—mild weather in October and November accounted for that—but Christmas lines were moving faster in Halifax, Sydney, Charlottetown and Moncton. St. John reported activity about the (Turn to Page 18, Col. 2)

Lindbergh Bills Spent in Germany

New York News Says Some of Ransom Money Paid Out By Late I. Fisch

Associated Press
 New York, Dec. 12.—The New York News says Ellis Parker, chief of Burlington County, N.J., detectives, has received confirmation from detectives in Europe that Ialor Fisch, Bronx furrier, spent part of the Lindbergh ransom money in Germany.
 Parker's investigation, the paper says, shows Fisch paid $300 in ransom money for a steamship ticket to Europe and after changing an additional $600 into Reichsmarks to use on his trip.
 Bruno Richard Hauptmann, now under sentence of death for the kidnapping of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr., said at his trial Fisch had given him the ransom money found in the Bronx carpenter's home. Fisch died later of tuberculosis in Germany.
 "JAFSIE" AT WORK AGAIN
 Associated Press
 New York, Dec. 12.—The New York American says Dr. John F. "Jafsie" Condon is making a secret investigation in an effort to obtain new evidence on the kidnapping and slaying of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr.

GREEK CAPITAL'S BIGGEST DEMONSTRATION

The above picture was taken when Athens was witnessing the most remarkable demonstration it has seen in modern times. King George was being welcomed back to the throne from which he was driven following the World War. An impression of the enormous crowds that cheered him to the echo is provided in this view of the palace and vicinity. Not only were the palace grounds jammed as George (designated by arrow) greeted his subjects from the balcony, but roof tops and windows of nearby buildings also were packed.

Japan's Equality Naval Demand Is Rejected By Powers

Delegates Communicate With Tokio After Proposal Turned Down By Britain, U.S. and France at London Conference; Dominions Also Oppose Equality

Associated Press
 London, Dec. 12.—Japan's demand for equality in naval strength was rejected at the International Naval Conference to-day by the four other great naval powers and the British Dominions.
 British, United States and Italian delegates flatly rejected the Japanese proposal, and had the support of the British Dominions, while France expressed opposition chiefly on grounds of procedure.
 It was understood Great Britain took the lead in opposing the Japanese demands.
 The meeting broke up at noon, with the Japanese leaving hastily. Although they are usually the first to depart, their hurried exit gave the impression at the moment they were walking out of the conference.
 Well informed sources said, however, the Japanese merely wished to submit certain questions to Tokio.
 French and Italian opposition to Japanese equality was understood to have resulted from the Japanese statement that they considered (Turn to Page 6, Col. 1)

Christmas Cheer In Gyro Packing Room

Tons of Vegetables, Flour, Cereals, Fruit and Other Goods Piled Ready For Packing in Hampers For Distribution to Needy; Mallek's Sponsor Radio Programme To-night

Like Ali Baba's cave is the former garage building at 915 Yates Street, where the Gyro Christmas Hamper Fund has its headquarters and packing room. All the good things of Christmas-time are piled to the roof in stacks of neat paper bags, gayly labelled boxes and bright cartons.
 Real need is the "Open Sesame," to this storehouse. Three days before Christmas these same good things will have been packed in holly-decked hampers and distributed to needy homes throughout the city, Oak Bay and Esquimalt.
 Here are some of the things to be seen in the packing room: 950 bags of apples, 1,007 bags of potatoes, forty-five cases of oranges, seventeen (Turn to Page 6, Col. 3)

INQUIRY INTO MINE DISASTER

Provincial Investigation at Coalhurst, Alta.; Funerals of 16 Victims To-morrow

Canadian Press
 Edmonton, Dec. 12.—The mine disaster at Coalhurst, near Lethbridge, which caused sixteen deaths on Monday, is to be investigated in a public inquiry launched by the province, acting Premier E. C. Manning ordered to-day.
 It has not been decided yet whether the inquiry will be held before a judge or A. Millar, chief inspector of mines for the province, according to Mr. Manning, who heads the ministry of mines during the absence in Ottawa of Hon. C. C. Ross.
 The province's inquiry, it is believed, will not be opened until after the new year. It has not been indicated whether this inquiry will parallel or precede the coroner's inquest which was opened Wednesday at the scene of the mine.
 FUNERALS TO-MORROW
 Lethbridge, Alta., Dec. 12.—Victims of the Coalhurst mine explosion will be accorded public funerals here to-morrow. The remains of those who were members of the Catholic Church will be buried in the morning and the bodies of the Protestant miners in the afternoon.
 During the funeral hours, all places of business in Lethbridge will close. Coalhurst, Shaughnessy and Lethbridge miners' union members will march in a body, while many miners from Crow's Nest Pass will also be present, together with representatives of various other organizations in the city. Two bands will have places in the processions.

 The two dogs, Bruno, a husky, and Puggy, a brindle bull, stayed with Bobbie while he was lost in the woods near his Essendale home.

Franco-British Plan For Peace In Africa To Come Up At Geneva Next Week

DUCÉ SEEKING GOOD BARGAIN

Authoritatively Reported Mussolini Accepting Basis of Discussions on Ethiopia

Associated Press
 Rome, Dec. 12.—Thoroughly reliable sources stated to-night that Premier Mussolini "quite probably" will accept discussions of peace between Italy and Ethiopia.
 Il Duce, it was said, intended to drive a good bargain in the peace negotiations because he feels strong enough to go ahead without the League of Nations.
 He was described, however, as satisfied with the main outline of the Franco-British peace proposal and confident he can get favorable modification of several details which he does not consider satisfactory.
 The peace plan stimulated the Rome stock market. Reflecting popular optimism, Bank of Italy stock went up 50 points.

Egypt Restores Constitution

King Fuad Signs Decree; British Cease to Control Internal Affairs

Associated Press
 Cairo, Dec. 12.—Fuad signed a royal decree to-day, restoring constitutional government to Egypt.
 Great Britain consented to Egypt's return to the self-government form of the suspended 1923 constitution on the very day the cabinet of Premier Tewfik Nassim Pasha was to resign. However, the new development did away with the necessity for the resignations and the ministers withdrew their announced intention to quit.
 The Premier attended the signing of the royal decree by King Fuad, ruler of this nominally independent North African kingdom, once a British protectorate.
 The constitution provides for a senate and a chamber of deputies, and takes control of Egypt's internal affairs out of British hands.
 It does not, however, affect British control of Egyptian foreign affairs, nor the British military protectorate.

King Watching Ethiopia Moves

Associated Press
 London, Dec. 12.—Reports King George had intervened personally with the government to force through the Anglo-French proposals for peace between Italy and Ethiopia circulated to-day in diplomatic circles.
 The King was understood to have been gravely concerned lest the Italo-Ethiopian crisis develop into a European conflict unless liquidated quickly.
 The reports were not confirmed officially.

Edén's Suggestion League Council Consider Territorial Proposals to Settle Italo-Ethiopian Conflict Is Adopted; British Minister Says Plan Is Not Final, But May Be Basis of Negotiations; Smaller Nations Suspicious of Proposals

By GEORGE HAMBLETON, Canadian Press Staff Writer
 Geneva, Dec. 12.—St. Hon. Anthony Eden to-day proposed to the Committee of Eighteen that the League of Nations Council should be called at the earliest possible moment to hear a full statement of the Franco-British plan for ending the war in East Africa.
 The Council of the League will be summoned in special session next Wednesday. The Committee of Eighteen will meet again to-morrow and continue to consider the effect of existing sanctions against Italy. It will not take up, however, the proposed embargo on oil, coal, iron and steel.

RESTORES DUTIES OF PARLIAMENT

Though no official replies have yet been received, information received by the British Government indicates the Franco-British plan will probably be rejected by both Italy and Ethiopia. In informed quarters it is thought the plan would not be accepted by Premier Mussolini, unless to place himself at a tactical diplomatic advantage over Ethiopia.
 TO ACCEPT JUDGMENT
 Mr. Eden, British Minister for League of Nations Affairs, 40-day declared to the committee of eighteen, it would be for the League Council to determine what course to pursue towards Italy and Ethiopia in the light of the situation created by the peace proposals.
 "In advance I wish to emphasize," Mr. Eden told the committee, "that in so far as His Majesty's Government are concerned, we will not only readily accept the judgment of our colleagues, but we will continue to use our best efforts to further the two objectives which have been constantly before us in this dispute—the restoration of peace and the maintenance of the authority of the League."
 Premier Laval of France is understood to have made a similar statement to the committee of eighteen.

Ethiopians Are Soon to Attack

Associated Press
 Addis Ababa, Dec. 12.—Ethiopian troops are preparing to-day for a big push against their lines, by Ras Desta Dintu, Emperor Haile Selassie's son-in-law.
 Scouts indicated Desta was massing 150,000 Ethiopians at the headwaters of the Juba River and has inspired them to almost berserk war frenzy. In preparation for the push, the Italians were rolling forward reinforcements of men and munition.

Its effect will be to permit goods on their way to Canada to enjoy benefits of treaty rates if transhipped in any British country.

The seventy-nine-year-old pioneer has been out for several automobile rides, and is able to move about his home. The physician described his condition as good.

Santa Claus Town Postmaster Busy

Many Letters Going Through Office in Indiana at Present; Special Stamping Machines Used

Associated Press
 Santa Claus, Ind., Dec. 12.—Meet the man who discovered Santa Claus—the town of Santa Claus, that is.

Bill Herschell, Hoosier reporter, song writer and poet, with his ruddy face and somewhat expanded low chest, might well pass for good Saint Nicholas himself, given some white whiskers, a red suit and cap and a reindeer team.

It was not in that guise, however, but as a reporter that Bill drove into this little town in the southern Indiana hill country thirty-two years ago.

"What town is this?" asked Bill. "Santa Claus," said one of the thirty or fifty inhabitants.

Bill went back to Indianapolis to write a story which drew world attention to the then almost isolated village.

The town's fame has grown until now the job of postmaster at Santa Claus this time of year becomes one which overtaxes the local community. Special stamping machines are brought in and a trained post office official is sent there to aid Oscar L. Phillips, postmaster. As many as 100,000 pieces of mail are handled a day. It comes addressed to "Postmaster, Santa Claus, Ind." and includes material for remailing to persons and places all over the world.

Schacht's Views Are Not Hitler's

Nazi Economics Minister Differs on Socialism-Capitalism Purposes

Associated Press
 Berlin, Dec. 12.—Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Reich minister for economics and head of the Reichsbank, came to grips with Reichschancellor Hitler yesterday evening on the purposes of Socialism and Capitalism.

Addressing a federal trade organization, Dr. Schacht asserted individual success is based on community service, but "nobody can demand success from the community."

"Everybody must use his success to help society," he declared. "That is active Socialism, in no wise contradicting private initiative, which is the supporting force of sound economics and which a mere marketing organism cannot supplant."

This apparently was an attempt to refute the strict marketing principles of Walter Darré, Nazi commissioner of agriculture, as well as Hitler's speech three days ago in which Dr. Schacht, cited state railroads as proof that "an enterprise serving the community can be conducted efficiently without private capitalist tendencies."

Dr. Schacht insisted personal factors cannot be removed from overseas commerce and other kinds of trade.

W. E. SANDERSON, COMPOSER, DIES

Canadian Press from Havas
 London, Dec. 12.—Wilfred Ernest Sanderson, composer of many popular songs, died by typhoid fever yesterday at his home, "Lone Oak," Nutfield, Surrey, in his fifty-seventh year.

Among his most popular songs are "Drake Goes West" and "Up From Somerset."

Wheat Board Post Full Time Job

Canadian Press
 Winnipeg, Dec. 12.—J. R. Murray, recently appointed to the chairmanship of the Canadian Wheat Board, will devote his entire time to his new duties, it was announced here yesterday following a meeting of directors of the Alberta Pacific Grain Company Limited, of which he is general manager.

Mr. Murray had been granted leave of absence from the company, the announcement said. The Wheat Board chairman also announced he had severed his connection with various other grain companies and companies having any dealings in cereals.

RUSSIAN OPINION ON ETHIOPIA

Associated Press
 Moscow, Dec. 12.—Pointed disapproval of the Anglo-French programme for settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian war was expressed yesterday by the newspaper Pravda, official organ of the Communist Party.

"It is clear the big powers are ready to make Ethiopia the victim of their interests," the newspaper said.

The newspaper asserted Great Britain's aim was to clear away problems in Africa and Europe, gaining a free hand to deal with the "growing aggression of Japan in China."

INDIA SILVER PRICE

Bombay, India, Dec. 12 (Associated Press).—The bullion board governing trade in gold and silver passed a resolution yesterday fixing minimum prices below which silver may not go on the next two dates for settlement of sales, due to the unsettled market.

Tourists' Views of Victoria

Following are extracts from questionnaires sent to tourists by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau seeking views and suggestions:

"Victoria streets are very old and hard on the car in July."

"Golf."

"Scenic beauty, climate and courtesy appealed to us."

"Only criticism is you have at least one bad tailor."

"Victoria is perfect."

"Nothing much to do after 6 or 7 o'clock in the evening."

"The road from Victoria to Nanaimo was the worst we encountered in a 3,000-mile drive."

"Keep Victoria very English; that is what attracts Americans."

"We came for boating and swimming."

"We did not encounter that feeling of commercialism which is so common felt by tourists of the United States."

"Simple, sensible people. Tea-rooms not very good."

"Would like to go back and try the fishing."

"Improve your roads."

"No criticism. Everything satisfactory."

"The restaurants are too much like those in the United States. They should serve more English dishes."

"Not enough auto camps. We saw many people turned away."

"Highways should extend further along the coast line than Campbell River and should be widened."

"It was the natural state of Vancouver Island that attracted us."

"Our visit to Mr. Denison at the Observatory was one of our most pleasant memories."

"The road to Jordan River was the worst found on all our trips. The government ought to be ashamed to ever suggest tourists go over it."

"You have a million dollars' worth of scenery and no development."

"We like the unharmed, eventful people of Victoria."

"We saw your very attractive seagull signs all the way south."

"The flowers are beyond anything I have seen even in Pasadena. The people are awfully nice and it is fun being in a foreign city."

"Street signs are poor, especially in the business section."

Polygamy Verdict Given in Arizona

Associated Press
 Kingman, Ariz., Dec. 12.—Twelve Arizona jurors reached a verdict in four hours yesterday, convicting I. C. Spencer of "open and notorious cohabitation" for his polygamous life as a member of a strange cult at isolated Short Creek, Ariz.

Spencer, father of thirteen children by two wives, was the first of three persons from that community, 400 miles away, to be tried. No recommendation as to sentence was made. Three years imprisonment is possible.

John Barlow, bishop of the Short Creek cult, declared: "We are prepared to take this case to the United States Supreme Court if necessary." He previously had called the state's action "religious persecution."

MEISNER CASE

Toronto, Dec. 12 (Canadian Press).—The status of David Meisner, serving fifteen years in the Kingston penitentiary for the kidnapping of John Labatt, London brewer, will be discussed before the conclusion of the present Dominion-provincial conference, it was learned here.

Hon. Ernest Lapointe, federal Minister of Justice, and Ontario Attorney-General Arthur Roebuck will consider the case.

NEW BUSINESS LICENSE PLAN

Alberta Government Studying Sliding Scale Suggestion, Says Acting Premier

Canadian Press
 Edmonton, Dec. 12.—A license plan on a sliding scale basis may be imposed on Alberta business firms in addition to the fee for registration purposes announced by the government recently.

Acting Premier E. C. Manning said that as this license proposal was being studied, the government's policy had not been determined.

"The license charge might be based on the volume of business or turnover," said the minister yesterday. "It would be less in a poor year than in a good year, which seems to be only fair."

The Acting Premier added such a license on business would not be designed for government revenue purposes, but rather to be applied to act as a stimulus to business or industry.

A plan of this kind also might prove to be the most effective way of collecting the proposed unearned increment every when the "just price" scheme was put into operation, said Mr. Manning.

Under such a plan, it would be possible to put benefits back into business, which should be made to stimulate itself as a whole, said the Acting Premier.

Youth Is Given Death Sentence

A. Cowan, Seventeen, Convicted of Killing Brother in Ontario

Canadian Press
 Pembroke, Ont., Dec. 12.—Allan Cowan, baby-faced boy of seventeen, convicted of murdering his brother, Albert, as the climax to a love triangle, was sentenced yesterday by Mr. Justice Mackay to be hanged February 27. He took the sentence calmly with a grin on his face.

A few minutes later the interrupted trial of Mary Cowan, Allan's sister-in-law, also charged with her husband's death, continued with Allan as the chief witness.

Mayor Prevost Will Retire

Duncan Chief Magistrate Announces He Will Relinquish Office This Year

Duncan, Dec. 12.—Mayor Harold F. Prevost, at the regular meeting of the Duncan City Council on Tuesday evening, announced that he did not intend to run again for the office of mayor.

He has held the office successfully for a number of years.

Aldermen Lee and Marsh, who are completing their terms on the council, will seek re-election.

The council received a communication from the Duncan Consolidated School Board containing the new extraordinary estimates for the new high school. This was turned down.

F. Bonnell wrote protesting extension of the street drainage system, due to the fact that the water would be dumped by the E. and N. roundhouse and cause flooding of his basement. This was referred to the streets committee.

WOMAN KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 12.—Mrs. Hulda Paul, seventy-one, of Omaha, Neb., was killed in an auto wreck on the Pacific Highway eight miles north-east of here yesterday evening. Reports said the car in which Mrs. Paul and her granddaughter, Miss Naomi Straley, twenty-two, also of Omaha, were riding crashed into the rear end of a truck. They were on route south from Vancouver, B.C.

EXTORTION CHARGES

St. Pierre, Miquelon, Dec. 12 (Canadian Press).—A scandal in high government circles, involving two officials in an alleged extortion racket, is stirring this minute French colony.

The accusations have been leveled against D. Laurell, head of the department of customs and former prosecutor, and E. Jaccachouri, customs clerk. They are alleged to have extorted large sums from St. Pierre businessmen.

WORKMEN ENLISTED

Jerusalem, Dec. 12 (Canadian Press).—The Arab daily, Falastin, reported yesterday that Italian agents were enlisting Arab workmen for work in Eritrea. Wages as high as $1 day ($5) were being offered, the newspaper said, and seventy Arabs already had signed up.

TAG ISLAND TREES WITH U.S. LABEL

While Vancouver Island is supplying Christmas trees for shipment to all parts of the world, many of them are being distributed with a U.S. label attached. The Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau has been informed. This is caused through wholesale shipments to Washington, which are then sent to other parts of the world.

The case drawn to the attention of the bureau was that of a firm in Tacoma, which secures Christmas trees from Vancouver Island. The trees shipped from Tacoma, although Vancouver Island trees, had tag with the U.S. firm's name and the words "made in U.S."

The Publicity Bureau got in touch with the firm asking that in future shipments, the shipping tag indicate the trees were from Vancouver Island. A reply has been received stating the shipments for the year had been completed so it would be impossible to do so.

DEEP FAT FRYING PRODUCES
VARIETY OF POTATO DISHES
By MARY E. DAGUE

An industrious statistician has figured out that men generally order French fried potatoes when they eat in hotels and restaurants. I am no statistician, but I think the reason men eat French fried potatoes in hotels is that they never get them at home. Yet they are not hard to do. The preparation, however, should be careful.

Chips or Saratoga potatoes must be cut in thin, transparent slices. French fried potatoes must be cut uniform in thickness. Shoestring potatoes or potatoes Julienne must be cut in thin strips. Literally shoestrings. Soufflé potatoes must be cut lengthwise in slices of absolutely even thickness with a perfect clean cut—no jagged edges.

CUTTING DEVICES ARE HANDY

There are clever devices on the market for cutting potatoes that insure perfection and since this type of potato cookery is such an attractive serving for various occasions, a set of potato cutters is a worthwhile investment.

A fat that can be heated to a high temperature without smoking or burning should be used for frying. A high grade vegetable oil or a firm vegetable fat give satisfactory results because either can be made very hot before the fat molecules break down.

To make French fried potatoes, pare potatoes and cut lengthwise into strips about three-quarter inch thick. Let stand in ice water for an hour. Drain and dry between towels. Fry in deep fat heated to 395 degrees F. Cook not more than twelve pieces at a time. Cook until brown and crisp on all sides. Drain on heavy brown paper and sprinkle with salt. Serve as soon as possible after frying.

SELECT POTATOES CAREFULLY

The composition of the potatoes is important in making potato soufflé because some kinds will not puff. A waxy potato gives the best results. Two kettles of fat are best. If one is used the process takes longer. In this case, let cooked slices drain on crumpled paper while cooking the entire batch at a low temperature. Then raise temperature of fat and finish cooking.

Select large potatoes and rub clean. Do not wash. Pare evenly, slicing out eyes or imperfections instead of turning around. Cut in lengthwise slices not more than one-eighth inch thick. A vegetable slicer will make perfect slices. Wipe each slice dry and place it between folds of a soft tea towel. Heat fat to 265 degrees F. Or hot enough to make bubbles rise to the surface when potatoes are put in. Put six or eight slices into kettle and cook five minutes, stirring with a long handled fork or skimmer. Remove at once to second kettle in which fat is heated to 425 degrees F. Cook until puffed and, delicately browned and crisp. Drain on crumpled paper and sprinkle with salt. Keep in a warm oven, about 200 degrees F. until ready to serve to insure crispness.

FRENCH FRY SWEET POTATOES, TOO

Sweet potatoes are good cooked French fried. Prepared exactly as you do Irish potatoes.

French fried onions can be done two ways. By one method, you cut in slices, separate into rings, and drop into milk. Let stand an hour. Drain and dip in flour. Fry in deep fat heated to 365 degrees F. Drain, sprinkle with salt and serve.

The other way to do them is to dip them in a thin batter made of 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 1 cup flour, and ½ teaspoon salt. Fry in deep fat heated to 365 degrees F. The first method is the easier.

Astronomical Society Ends Successful Year

Annual Meeting Yesterday Evening Returns Lieut.-Commander H. R. Tingley to Presidency; Annual Reports Read

At its coming-of-age meeting at the Y.W.C.A. yesterday evening, Lieut.-Commander H. R. Tingley was returned to the presidency of the Victoria Astronomical Society. In his presidential address he reminded the members that it was just twenty-one years ago that the Victoria Society was formed. The founding marked the official opening of the Saanich Observatory, and the local branch was the second to be formed in Canada, the original one being in Toronto.

Other officers elected were H. Boyd Brydon, honorary president; Robert Peters, vice-president; Gordon Shaw, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Myra Olliphant, librarian; directors, Dr. R. M. Petrie, Dr. A. McKellar, Leonard Hopkins and A. I. Deacon.

In making his address Lieut.-Commander Tingley reminded the members of the Victoria branch how fortunate they were situated, and how comparatively easy their work was made because of the professional personnel and equipment at Saanich. Other branches had been formed in Canada in recent years, and while they were not as flourishing as the Victoria branch they were carrying along satisfactorily, he said.

SUMMER MEETINGS

The chairman referred to the success of the "summer meetings with the stars," when an average of sixty-eight persons attended the eight meetings. He thanked the school board, in this connection, for the use of the laboratory at Victoria College. The lectures had dealt with a variety of subjects, the speaker recalled. It was the object of the society to present addresses of different types, so that all in the least interested in astronomy would attend.

The lectures during the last year had been popular and instructive.

The president referred to the loss the society had suffered in the death of Charles Hartley, vice-president. He referred to the illness of H. Boyd Brydon and voiced the society's pleasure at his recovery.

Lieut.-Commander Tingley stressed the need of a larger membership and growth of the society's library, which now had about eighty volumes. The subject of astronomy, he said, was just a common garden cultural topic like music or literature, and all members should try and increase the knowledge of it in the community.

The speaker referred to the talk given on astronomy to school children, boy scouts and other young people and their apparent interest in the subject.

During the year the society paid its official visit to the Dominion Observatory at Saanich. He spoke of the retirement of Dr. J. S. Plaskett, but said the members would be glad to know he would continue to live in Victoria, and would give an address at the society's spring session.

During the year the new David Dunlap Observatory had been opened in Toronto, leaving the observatory at Saanich the second-largest in Canada.

It was particularly gratifying, he said, that Canada should have two such fine observatories.

In the summer the members had seen the eclipse of the moon from the grounds of Victoria College, and it was something to remember, the president said, adding they hoped to see several more next year. He referred to the daily horoscopes, saying "they should be read with a very large grain of salt." He also spoke of the astronomical display in the Hall of Science at the Willows Exhibition.

BALANCE IN BANK

Gordon Shaw read the report of the secretary-treasurer, which showed there had been twenty-one meetings during the year; that the membership was 122, an increase of three over last year; that the attendance had been good and the balance in the bank was $17.50, compared with a deficit last year. He spoke of astronomy as "the most inspiring of all the sciences."

Special votes of thanks were passed to the retiring officers, to the speakers during the year, and to the press.

Wilfred Hobday spoke on the class in telescope building, which is being carried on each Monday evening at the Boys' Central School. He said Victoria stood high in the number of amateur telescope builders. All were welcome at the Monday night classes, he said.

A number of interesting experiments with high voltage were given by Leonard Hopkins and Ronald Hopkins. Lieut.-Commander Tingley also gave a brief lecture.

FINE PROGRAMME

A splendid entertainment programme was supplied for the society's twenty-first birthday. Miss Phyllis Deville and Kylie Symons Jr., attended, the former singing "The Bird Secret" and "A Meditation," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. C. Hole and the latter rendering "The Nights" and "My Luck," with P. H. Hughes at the piano.

Winsome little Miss Florence Hobday gave a spirited tap dance, with Miss Barbara Fraser at the piano, and an instrumental trio played the Andante from Mendelssohn's trio in G minor and "The Miniature," by Birch. In this trio were Miss Barbara Fraser, piano; Gordon Shaw, cello; and F. J. Darmon, violin.

Following the meeting refreshments brought the evening to an enjoyable close.

ASK PREACHERS TO AID PEACE

At their regular monthly meeting held Tuesday, the Victoria branch of the League of Nations Society decided to invite all clergy on Vancouver Island to put forward from their pulpits the claims of peace and the League of Nations, on the Sunday preceding Christmas.

It was reported at the meeting that H. T. Ravenhill had spoken for the society during the last month at places as far distant as Courtenay and Ladang, and that other speakers had addressed several of the service clubs and young people's associations of the city.

The meeting the society recently held, as well as the talks by Miss Dingman, have resulted in many new memberships. It is expected many more citizens of Victoria would like to put themselves definitely on the side of peace and invite them to do so by writing to the treasurer, League of Nations Society, 1006 Government

Street, Victoria, for particulars and literature.

Fuel, light, power, gas and water for city schools during the current year in date have cost the school board $17,561.57, it was revealed in the finance report submitted at yesterday evening's meeting of the board.

"Well, it's pretty soft," said Jean contentedly. "It's funny about Mr. Montague. I haven't hardly been earning my salary lately. . . . What day was that, anyhow?"

"Friday," said Sandy promptly. "I remember, because that was Eve Lewis's birthday. She bawled me out for not remembering to be home for her dinner party."

"Why, Sandy—did you break an engagement to go canoeing with me?" asked Jean.

"Say, I'm glad I did—for more reasons than one."

Jean eyed him archly. "What's the other one?"

Sandy sighed. "Aw, there's a funny mixup here in town. Seems there's a holdup artist somewhere around who looks like me."

"Sandy?"

"Yeah—can you imagine?"

"How do you mean, Sandy?" she asked, puzzled. "How did you find out about it?"

"Art Lanning, down at the Golden Feather, told me. The coppers got a description of this holdup man, and a couple of 'em were in the Golden Feather the other night and saw me. So they went home and talked it over and decided that since I looked like the bird they'd better pick me up. The word got out, some way, and Art heard about it and told me."

He looked over with an expression of mock dismay.

"You mean—you mean they—they want to arrest you?"

"Yeah."

The Imperial Life Salary Continuance Policy, providing for the payment to your family of $100 a month for 12 months after your death calls for a saving on your part of only about 10c a day. It is an admirable supplement to any other insurance you may carry.

He took out a cigarette and lit it apparently unconcerned.

"But Sandy! What are you going to do?"

He laughed.

"Well, as soon as this ride is finished, I'm going down to police headquarters and explain the mistake and ask them to stop worrying about me," he said lightly.

"Are you sure they—they'll believe you?"

Once more he laughed confidently.

"I know they will."

"How?"

"Because," he said, half turning in his saddle to look at her, "at the moment that this particular robbery was being committed, you on the east side of town, and I was in a canoe fifteen miles away, paddling along the river."

His eyes rested on hers, and she felt a weight disappear from her chest.

"Oh, Sandy—really?"

"Sure. That's why I said I was glad in more ways than one that you got the afternoon off last Friday."

If you hadn't I'd probably have had the devil's own time trying to persuade these coppers I'm an honest man.

This way it's perfectly simple. All we've got to do is go down there and explain about last Friday afternoon, and everything'll be settled. But if I hadn't been with you it all might have been pretty unpleasant for me!

Jean stared at him, somewhat startled.

"What?" she said.

It was his turn to look surprised.

"Why, of course. You'll go in with me, won't you? Being more or less of a stranger here, I might have a lot of trouble getting them to take my word for it, but with you along—"

He gestured airily with his cigarette.

Jean told herself that it was silly to feel any resistance toward going to the police station with him.

After all, he'd been the victim of a silly mistake, and it was a stroke of luck that with her help he would be able to keep the mistake from becoming serious.

"Oh, of course I'll go," she said. "It's just that—oh, I suppose it's just because I've never been in a police station, and I always sort of imagined them as dirty and messy, an—"

He laughed.

"Won't take five minutes," he said. "And there's no hurry about it. We'll finish our ride and have some lunch first. Okay?"

She nodded, and in a sudden mood of gaiety spurred her horse down the road. He was after her instantly, and they finally returned to the barn flushed and breathless, their hair and clothing whipped away by the wind, their spirits exuberant.

Sandy seemed to be in no hurry and he seemed as if he was anxious that the trip to police headquarters should not be too oppressive a prospect to her. He took her to a suburban inn for lunch, and they sat for a long time on a breezy-washed veranda and Sandy talked about nothing at all in his half-mocking, half-affectionate manner. At last, glancing at his watch, he suggested that they "get it over with."

Three quarters of an hour later he found a parking place near the gloomy police headquarters and led Jean up the worn steps. She followed him across a musty hall into a dilapidated elevator, which creaked and wheezed its way to the third floor. Then they went down an even mustier hall to a door which bore a sign, "Detective Bureau." Rather timidly she followed Sandy into what seemed to be a waiting room, where half a dozen people sat about on plain wooden benches.

Sandy led her toward a bench at the side of the room. Two men were sitting there, and one of them got up and smiled as they approached. To Jean's amazement it was Mr. Montague.

"Well, Miss Dunn," he said, smiling, "I understand you're going to be the heroine that helps Sandy out of this absurd predicament he seems to be in?"

A.Y.P.A. Amateur Night Enjoyed

St. John's A.Y.P.A. amateur night scored a great hit, when on Monday 145 A.Y. members and friends gathered at the auditorium. The entertainment opened with recordings the numbers being announced by Jack Laver of station A.Y.P.A. At 8 o'clock the sound of the gong gave the contestants over to "General Hooper" by John Hooper.

Twelve contestants stepped to the stage in quest of the honor. Prize was carried by: 1. Miss Iris Smith of St. John's branch, who sang "Paris in the Spring"; second prize went to the Misses Mous and Phyllis Butts of St. Mark's branch, who presented a short skit; third prize was awarded to Al. Paver for his very pleasing violin solo. Cheques were presented during the evening's entertainment.

Community singing with Miss Helen Riley at the piano proved a big success. The social committee under the convener of Miss Iris Smith helped considerably to bring the evening's entertainment to a successful close, when refreshments were served.

Others taking part in the "amateur hour" were: Miss Elizabeth Welsh of Colwood and Langford branch, a song; Miss Iona Bond of St. Luke's, tap dance; Miss Pat Kier and George White of Christ Church, duet; Miss Phyllis Flight of St. Luke's, piano solo; Jack Moore, St. Barnabas, a violin solo; Miss Sylvia Schofield, St. John's, a recitation; Ray Porter, St. Mark's, mandolin solo; Bob Murray, St. John's, sailor's hornpipe; representatives of St. Michael's, a skit.

Next meeting will take place on Monday at 7:30 sharp. A short business meeting and decorating of the church will complete the meeting. All members are requested to attend.

ESQUIMALT GIRL BRIDE

Miss Helen Roode Weds Mr. Alex. Gray at Pretty Ceremony

Esquimalt United Church, Admiral's Road, was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday evening, when the nuptials were celebrated of Helen Ether, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roode, Comford Street, and Alexander Gray, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray of Winnipeg. Rev. F. W. Anderson officiated, and Miss E. Rowe was at the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of soft ivory satin, with yoke and long sleeves of fine Brussels lace. The graceful skirt was floor length, the waist finished with a row of narrow velvet and clusters of velvet and lace roses. The embroidered net veil fell from a satin halo with wreath of orange blossoms, and her bouquet was of pink roses and carnations.

Attending her sister as matron of honor, Mrs. Gordon Corless wore a becoming gown of mauve crepe, the long skirt flaring at the hem, draped corsage and ruffled sleeves. A bouquet of mauve chrysanthemums completed the toilette. The bridesmaids, Miss Jean Barker and Miss Kathie Johnson, wore gowns cut on similar lines, the former was in primrose yellow crepe and the latter in pale green moire. Both carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums and wore a hair bandeau of rhinestones.

The groom was supported by Mr. Gordon Corless and Mr. John Rowton were ushers. The church was beautifully decorated with greenery and chrysanthemums, the ceremony taking place under an archway of white, with a white bell hung with wide satin ribbon, all the decorations being carried out by young friends of the couple. During the signing of the register Miss Mona Morgan sang "O Perfect Love."

An informal reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The reception rooms were gay with masses of pink chrysanthemums, the happy pair standing under an archway of pink and silver, framed in greenery and small pink roses. Mrs. Roode, who wore a smart jacket dress of navy blue crepe, with hat on style and coral-crepe bouquet of pink roses, was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. A. L. Mendam in a wine-colored ensemble.

A buffet supper was served from a table daintily decorated in yellow and white. The four-tiered square wedding cake was specially made by Mrs. R. N. Macaulay, and beautifully decorated by Mrs. S. Devenon. Sidney, both old family friends.

Among the many beautiful gifts was a handsome silver flower basket presented to the bride by fellow members of the Y.P.S. choir and Bible class of the Esquimalt United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray left on the midnight boat for a three weeks' honeymoon in the Coast cities, the bride traveling in a dress and matching hat in the new shade of purple and coat of black cloth in fox, and black accessories.

McGREGOR—HUNT
Summerland, Dec. 12.—The marriage of Dorothy, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunt, and Mr. Frank McGreggor, son of Mr. McGreggor of Victoria and the late Capt. McGreggor, was solemnized on Saturday evening, November 30, in Parkdale Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. John Scott.

The ceremony was performed against a charming background of cedar, snow-berries, white satin streamers and shaggy, white chrysanthemums. Tiny rose lights were strung through the cedar, and a novel wedding bell had been made of pine-cones. The guest pews were marked with cedar and white berries. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a wedding gown of lustrous white satin, with long filmy veil. She carried a bouquet of single rose chrysanthemums. Her bridesmaids were her two sisters, Miss Lillian and Miss Madeline Hunt, and they were frocked similarly in powder blue moire of floor length. They wore a flower bandeau and long white gloves, and their bouquets were of pink chrysanthemums. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Andrew McGreggor.

The nuptial music was played by Mrs. Dale at the organ and Miss Ruth Dale at the piano, and during the signing of the register Miss J. Paradise sang. The ushers were Mr. Ernest P. Hunt, brother of the bride, and Mr. William Ritchie Jr.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors, where Mrs. Hunt, gowned in wine-colored velvet with matching hat, assisted in receiving.

For going away the bride wore a Harris tweed sweater suit, eggshell blouse and brown accessories. Mr. and Mrs. McGreggor will make their home in Vancouver for a short time, later going to Victoria to reside.

Mrs. Frank McGreggor is a graduate of St. Joseph's Hospital, Victoria.

Seniors Enjoy Young Artists

Musical Arts Society Entertained By Junior-Group at Empress Hotel

Senior members of the Victoria Musical Arts Society were entertained in pleasing fashion by the junior group yesterday evening on the occasion of the monthly concert, a large audience at the Empress Hotel listening with evident pleasure, mixed with pride, to the excellent programme arranged by the "offspring" for the entertainment of the parent body.

A seasonal atmosphere was imparted by the effective stage setting, with its simulated fireplace, evergreen decorations and red candles. The programme included the Chopin Scherzo by Elsie Friend, gifted young pianist; two Christmas songs sweetly sung by Barbara Daniels, "Tyrone Noel" (Klein) the old traditional song, "Twelve Days of Christmas," ably accompanied at the piano by Maquinn Daniels, and the well-played allegro movement of the Beethoven Instrumental Trio No. 1, E flat major, with Margaret Pringle at the piano, John Pinn playing the violin, and Herbert Botten the cello.

To lend variety to the programme the final number was the amusing sketch "Our Aunt From California," directed by Nellie Scowrodt and excellently presented by Catherine Craig in the leading role of Sally Needy; Lucille McKay, as Felicia Needy; Hetty Harvey, as Rosalie Needy; Iris Gaskill, as Mrs. Merry Muntoburn; Dora Curtis, as Mrs. Needy, and Mary Hughes, as the dressmaker.

After the more formal part of the programme, dancing was enjoyed in the Tudor grillroom, bridge being arranged for those who did not care to dance.

B.C. DAUGHTERS GREET OFFICIAL

Mrs. A. McRae of Nanaimo, grand factor of the Native Daughters of British Columbia, paid her official visit to the Native Daughters of British Columbia Post No. 3 yesterday evening at the meeting held in the K. of P. Hall. Mrs. McRae was accompanied by the grand secretary, Miss L. Davidson, also of Nanaimo.

The chief factor, Miss L. Smethurst, received the two visiting grand factors and presented them with lovely corsage bouquets, the flowers of which were yellow and white, the colors of the Native Daughters.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. McRae addressed the members and told of her delight in watching the splendid manner in which the officers executed their work.

A short business meeting took place during which a committee composed of Misses J. Turner, Patricia Petherbridge and Thelma Bernie was appointed to make arrangements with the Native Sons of British Columbia Post No. 1 for the joint Christmas party to be held on December 30 in the K. of P. Hall, commencing at 8 p.m. At this party each member is invited to bring a friend.

Reports were presented by Miss E. Neelands on the Local Council of Women, and by Mrs. C. Newbury on the Women's Workroom. Mrs. L. Lorimer, for the visiting committee, stated that several members were ill. Donations were made to the Gyro Hamper Fund and the Spanish Welfare Society. Following the meeting, a musical programme was given. Songs were sung by Mrs. T. F. Waters, accompanied by Miss Thelma Bernie, who also played a pianoforte solo.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. T. C. Hubbard, Mrs. T. P. Waters, Miss Lillian Benson and Miss Marjorie Gillies. Yellow and white chrysanthemums graced the supper table and at either end were green candles in silver holders. Dogwood favors were placed around the table. Mrs. H. A. Beckwith was in charge of the decorations.

Centennial W.M.S. End Busy Year

The December meeting of the Centennial Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church, was held in the manse on Monday afternoon, Mrs. Farquhar presiding. The meeting opened with the singing of a Christmas hymn, and repeating in unison of the watchword. The devotional period was led by four of the members. The topic was "The Spirit of Love and Forgiveness." A good number of members responded to the roll call and a few visitors were present. When the secretary's reports for the year were read, one realized all had done well in the special work that was theirs to do.

Mrs. W. N. Mitchell, a life member of the auxiliary for many years, passed away during the year. A tribute was paid to her memory by all standing in silence for a few moments. Mrs. Howard then led in prayer.

The officers elected for the coming year are: President, Mrs. A. E. Farquhar; vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Saunby; corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. S. Peat; recording secretary, Mrs. J. Alton; treasurer, Mrs. H. G. Hambleton; strangers' secretary, Mrs. Elder; Christian stewardship, Mrs. A. H. Rogers; temperance, Mrs. W. L. Mitchell; supply, Mrs. A. Couch; Missionary Monthly, Mrs. E. Muirgrave; C.G.I.T., Mrs. C. G. Mackenzie; press secretary, Mrs. Howard.

An expression of thanks was voted to the Victoria Daily Times and Colunist for their kindness in printing reports of meetings from time to time.

WILL BE 108 FRIDAY 13TH

Chicago Woman Has Birthday To-morrow; Is Philosopher

By RUTH COWAN Associated Press Chicago, Dec. 12.—A hundred and eight years old to-morrow—Friday, the 13th!

It was not how she happened to live so long that puzzled Mrs. Martha Stieger to-day, but why?

"Undoubtedly," she is wont to tell her family of three daughters, twelve grandchildren, thirty great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren, "it's for some very good reason—perhaps I don't quite understand it."

She has been blind for the last two years, but this, too, she has accepted as "part of the scheme of things." She is deeply religious and passes many hours singing old hymns to herself.

Her mind is clear and her hearing still sharp, and as for her appetite—she eats nearly everything.

NEW ORDER IS AID TO TRADE

Canadian Press Ottawa, Dec. 12.—Dumping duties against British goods based on arbitrary valuations will be wiped out under an order made public yesterday by Hon. J. L. B. B. Minister of National Revenue. The goods affected will be chiefly wire rope, Jersey cloth and stockinette, a material used for lining rubbers.

This ends a long battle for removal of these dumping duties based on arbitrary valuations. The valuations were imposed under section 43 of the Customs Act and enabled a minister by means of an order-in-council to declare the value for duty purposes on any commodity. In addition to the regular duty on the article, a dump equal to the difference between the invoice price and the higher arbitrary valuation, was levied.

ENOCH ARDEN DIVORCE SUIT

Edmonton Man, Believed Dead By Wife, Given Decree

Canadian Press Edmonton, Dec. 12.—Thomas Hughes, modern Enoch Arden, was granted a divorce last by Mr. Justice W. C. Ives in Supreme Court here today after he had told the court how his wife, believing him dead, married another and went to live in Kelso, Wash.

Separated from her husband in 1920, Mrs. Thomas Hughes lived in Edmonton until five years ago. She had decided to move with her husband to Mountain Park, preferring to remain in the city with her two children.

In 1920, Mrs. Hughes received a newspaper clipping from a friend purporting to show that her husband had perished in a mine disaster at Mountain Park.

Some time later, Mrs. Hughes met Charles Martin in Edmonton. They were married and moved to the state of Washington, where they lived in Bellingham, Bremerton, and finally in Kelso. There had been three children to the union.

Not until she received a letter from her first husband's solicitor, did she have an inkling that Hughes was still alive.

Hughes, employed at a mine at Cadomin, Alta., told the court he had not seen his wife since July, 1920.

VISITS TOMB OF MDIVANI

Baroness, Hurt When Ex-prince Killed, Prays at His Grave

Barcelona, Spain, Dec. 12.—For three days a mysterious woman in black slipped away from her hotel room at dawn to visit the tomb of Prince Alex Mdivani and kneel there in prayer.

It was learned to-day she was the Baroness Maude Von Thyssen, German noblewoman who was seriously injured in the automobile accident in which the prince, first husband of the former Barbara Huton, was killed August 1.

She made an incognito trip to Spain to visit Mdivani's burial place. Secrecy surrounded her visit, but caretakers at the Palamos cemetery corroborated a report that the baroness, heavily veiled, three times visited the tomb and spent some time kneeling in prayer.

Jelly For Frosting Jelly makes a wonderful frosting for cake that is to be eaten at once.

Use any tart jelly, set it in a bowl over boiling water, add one egg white unbeaten and a little salt. Beat until there are no lumps. Remove bowl from boiling water and continue to beat until mixture is stiff. Spread on cake.

Reply Tactful Tactful and delicate was the reply made by the Hollywood-bound French film star who had not found "life on the ocean wave" all for which one could wish.

She was sinking, pale and haggard, into her steamer chair, when her neighbor cheerily asked: "Have you breakfasted, mademoiselle?"

"No, m'ieur," answered the actress with a wan smile. "I have not breakfasted. On the contrary."

Dean Quinton spent some days in the Penitentiary some time ago, and from his knowledge gained through this personal contact will have some extremely interesting experiences to relate. The soloists will be Miss May Zala, soprano, and Harold Parfitt, trombonist. A collection in aid of the B.Y.F.U. Christmas Hamper Fund will be taken.

FIRE ALARM AS LOVE SIGNAL

Montreal Romeo Sentenced For Series of False Alarms

Canadian Press Montreal, Dec. 12.—Rene Jobin, twenty-seven, helped love to find a way but it happened to be the wrong way. For three months he'll have plenty of solitude to muse over the fact that firemen don't like giving up their ches to help Romeos win fair ladies.

Enamoured of a girl whose stern parents would not allow her out at night, Jobin took to ringing fire alarm bells in the vicinity of his Juliet's home in the hope that in the ensuing excitement she might escape the parental vigilance.

The ninth and last time he played his up-to-date cavalier's ruse, a hard-hearted policeman happened to be near. The policeman told the firemen the firemen told Judge Maurice Tetreau and Judge Tetreau told Jobin—"three months."

Caught a Cold? Vicks VapoRub helps End a Cold Sooner

If a cold has developed, rub Vicks VapoRub on throat and chest at bedtime. VapoRub acts direct—two ways at once: (1) By stimulation through the skin like a poultice or plaster; (2) By inhalation of its medicated vapors direct to inflamed air-passages. Through the night, this combined vapor-poultice action loosens phlegm, soothes irritation, helps break congestion.

Spiritual Need In World To-day

Universe Not Ready For New Economic Era, Says Prof.
E. S. Farr

With the existence of hatred and deceptive and fraudulent practices, the world to-day is not ready for a new economic era of plenty; there must be a development of the spiritual side of life, said Professor E. S. Farr of Victoria College, addressing the Victoria West Community Forum yesterday evening.

Professor Farr spoke on the new book, "Rich Man, Poor Man," written by Stuart Chase, Henry Pratt Fairchild and Harry A. Overstreet, published by the People's League for Economic Security.

The speaker quoted figures from the publication to support the argument that the profit system and the principle of conflict in economics were out of date. Production was not up to capacity, nor was consumption up to production, yet war existed in the country, he said.

Inability to afford regular physical examinations, dental treatment and proper physical care resulted in high death rates, and two-thirds of the population were without adequate homes because twice the average man's income was required to purchase one, he said.

He dealt with the enormous costs of war and of the huge profits realized by munitions makers.

With the inventions and progress of the twentieth century, a rest period was now needed to concentrate upon development of the spiritual side of life, he said. Development of a better civilization must start with the human heart, and there should be a cultivation of the inner life with a revelation to the Ten Commandments.

Rev. W. R. Brown expressed thanks to the speaker.

MANY FAMILIES WILL NEED AID

Salvation Army Christmas
Contributions Go to Worthy Work

Salvation Army officials said today there has been a good response to the annual Christmas appeal. In the last few days numerous cheques have reached relief headquarters. In many cases the covering letter expressed appreciation of the work done by the Army in the social and relief field all the year round.

While over 380 families enjoyed the substantial food, warm clothing and children's toys the Army was able to send out last year, it is expected that this number will be increased this year, but all feel that no worthy case should be missed.

It is with the idea of taking some Christmas joy to these people that the Army places its kettles on the street corner in every town and city throughout the Dominion, in fact, in almost every country. Anyone may subscribe, from the tiniest amount up. It will all be spent to good purpose in making some little boy or girl happier on the day above all others in the year which is the children's festival.

The jingle of the bells upon the street corners of Victoria is a reminder that an efficient branch of this world-wide army is doing its best to bring cheer to many in this city who would not be reached in any other way.

Ward Four Names 1935 Committees

Working committees of Ward Four Victoria Liberal Association were appointed at a meeting in Liberal headquarters yesterday evening under the chairmanship of C. E. Copeland, president.

The following were named:

Membership—A. Tuckwell (chairman), Mrs. J. Nelson, G. Read and E. Keen.
R. Rounding was appointed auditor, and Mrs. A. Chapman as pianist for the meetings.

Starting next month the regular meetings will be held on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month, it was announced. The December 25 meeting was cancelled.

Canada Producing More Footwear

The production of boots and shoes in Canada is running about 15 per cent ahead of last year, according to Dominion Bureau of Statistics figures covering the first ten months. Up to the end of October 18,440,551 pairs of footwear of all kinds had been turned out, compared with 16,005,669 at the same date in 1934. The 1935 production was the highest for the corresponding period in any of the last five years.

The exportation of Canadian-made footwear is increasing the report says. In October exports were 27,972 pairs worth $40,242, against 9,682 pairs worth $35,484 in October last year. There was an increase from $86,078 to $88,177 in imports.

Hannay Sentence Is Seven Years

Canadian Press
Nanaimo, Dec. 12.—Terms of seven years in the New Westminster Penitentiary were given George Hannay and William H. Jones yesterday evening on their conviction of a joint charge of breaking and entering and theft of goods valued at $14.35 from the store of A. Constantine at Parksville, twenty-six miles north of Nanaimo, on the morning of June 4 this year. This was the last case on the dock.

Sentence was pronounced by Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson a few minutes after Morgan Harris, foreman of the jury consisting of nine men and three women, had brought in a verdict of guilty against the two men.

It required one hour for the jury to arrive at the decision, which vindicated the police of an alleged "frame-up" as charged by the accused.
"All I have to say, My Lord, is that I have not been able to get my two witnesses," said Hannay before sentence was passed.

Jones referred to his previous good record during his seventeen-year residence here, and said he hoped to be able to come back, in asking for leniency.

Before passing sentence on Jones, the judge pointed out he had been convicted twice recently on charges of possessing stolen property.
Hannay asked that the sentences date from the day of their arrest, but Mr. Justice Robertson refused to grant this request. The terms of imprisonment will date from yesterday.

THE SPORTS MIRROR

BARE RUTH made his final appearance as an active combatant on a semi-professional lot in Brooklyn this fall. The once mighty slugger announced that it was such from the field. What would have been a tremendous farewell at the Yankee Stadium amounted to little or nothing in the obscure bush game. It was a rather sorry ending for the old home run king after twenty-two glorious campaigns.

Ruth's passing brings to mind that the years took an unusually heavy toll in 1935, with the last half dozen of the twenty-year men among the more than two dozen veterans bowing to aching joints and burking bows.

Walter James Maraville, twenty-three, Ruth twenty-two, Sam Jones twenty-two, Rogers Hornsby twenty-one, Muddy Ruel twenty-one, Sam Rice twenty. Owners and managers wish the figures represented their ages, instead of the number of springs they were south and returned to sit up trouble for the opposition.

It seems likely that 1936 will be the first year since baseball was organized with the formation of the original National League in 1876 that the game will be without a single twenty-year major leaguer or what was the equivalent of such an individual before the unbroken sport was old enough to manufacture one of its own.

Ty Cobb, could still smack 'em and scout following twenty-four championship grinds. Cy Young stuck around for twenty-three seasons; Fred Clarke, Honus Wagner, Nap Lajoie and Tris Speaker for twenty-one, and Grover Cleveland Alexander for twenty.

So it is, with signs pointing to Jimmy Dykes launching his nineteenth season as the new major league dean in 1936, and Jess Haines, the papa of the pitchers who will be behind him, as the daddy of the batters who will be behind him. That is the only way that Pop Time will bag the plucky little Rabbit.

Dean Dykes still can play plenty of third base, but will groom an understudy when the Chicago White Sox report. The St. Louis Cardinals are counting upon Frankie Frisch, who is to launch his eighteenth season, for only part time duty. A kink must be worked out of Pie Traynor's throwing shoulder if he is to get in a good share of his Pittsburgh Pirates' games in his seventeenth year.

Hornsby performed even less than he has in recent seasons as boss of the St. Louis Browns in 1935, and Ruel chucked catching to coach the White Sox pitchers. Adolfo Luque also turned to coaching after nineteen eventful races.

Charley Grimm and his lumbago stepped aside for the youthful Phil Cavaretta after the ailing howl one athlete can look after first base over an eighteen-year stretch. Dizzy Vance wound up with the semi-pros and Hughie Critz retired in their fifteenth autumn.

Cincinnati paid the Yankee-controlled Newark Internationals $25,000 for George McGinnis, who is to replace Sunny Jim Bottomley, a National League first-sacker for fourteen seasons. Others who lingered for quite a spell before fading from the big league picture in 1935 include Frank O'Doul, who twice led senior wheel hitters; Chick Hefey, who topped them once; Willie Kamm, for whom the White Sox paid San Francisco $100,000 in 1922; Bill Cissell, for whom the White Sox gave the Portland Coasters $123,000 in cash and players in 1927; and eagle-eyed Max Bishop, who was released by the Boston Red Sox after a twelve-year run in the junior wheel and who supplanted Cissell as manager of the Portland club.

Fred Marberry switched to umpiring but contemplates a pitching comeback. Stumpy Sparks Adams; over-stuffed Shanty Hogan; Larry Benton, a corking churmer before he lost the handoffs; George Fippner, who starred with the Yankees; Owen Carroll, once the darling of Holy Cross; Fidgety Phil Collins; Heinie Meine; Alphonse Thomas; and Bobby Burke, the perennial Washington recruit were sent on their way. All of them were not taken by the years, but it took time to throw out the better ones, who were good fellows when they had it.

Doug Grant and Chuck Jones May Be Brought West

Hugo Rayment After Former Canadian Champ and Manitoba Star For Local Meet

Tourney Billed Jan. 29 to Feb. 1

Negotiations are proceeding between C. Hugo Rayment, leading figure in local badminton circles, and two of Canada's outstanding shuttle stars for participation in the Vancouver Island championships at the Armories from January 29 to February 1, it was revealed by Rayment today.

The event, sponsored by the Victoria Garrison Club, is annually one of the highlights of the local badminton season.

The two outstanding Canadians whom local officials will strive to bring west for the tournament are Doug Grant, Halifax, Canadian champion two years ago, and Charlie Jones, Winnipeg, Manitoba titleholder. Grant, forced out of the game by illness last year, is regarded as possibly the finest amateur player in Canada. He has returned to the active lists this year and is reported to be playing a splendid game. Jones is rated about fifth in the Dominion rankings. Both men are at present in Winnipeg.

It was understood efforts would be made to bring them west in a general tournament cycle which would probably include the provincial championships in Vancouver.

Whether or not the easterners make the trip, Victoria will see some exceptional games in the island championships. Virtually all city champions crowned at the recent meet at the Willows are scheduled to perform along with other stars from points outside the city.

As usual the event will include men's and women's singles and doubles as well as open mixed doubles and mixed handicap doubles.

Although it was not known definitely that outsiders would be coming to the city for the meet, there was a good chance several of the outstanding performers of last year's tourney might be on deck again.

Dick Birch, Vancouver, is the present holder of the men's singles crown, having beaten Eric Leney, Duncan, for the title. In the women's division, Mrs. Anna Kier Patrick, Vancouver, won the singles laurel last year, defeating Margaret Taylor, Kelowna, who later went on to win the provincial and Canadian championships in that section.

Tony Pooley, Kelowna, teamed up with Leney to win the men's doubles, while Rica Norie and Leney annexed the mixed crown. Miss Taylor and Daphne Fernie, Kamloops, won the women's doubles.

If stars of their calibre, coupled with the two Canadian aces, take part in the meet at the end of next month, the tournament should be one of the best ever held in the city.

BUFFALO BIONS IN SECOND SPOT

Cleveland, Dec. 12.—Buffalo Bions were in second place in the western section of the International Hockey League today because Cliff Barton, wingman, rifled a puck eighty feet and it went by goal-tender Bill Taubner.

Buffalo and Cleveland faced off here yesterday evening and played scoreless hockey until 12:53 of the third period, when Barton, just inside the half-way mark, let one fly and it went in. The game, 1 to 0, for the Bions. It also broke a five-game winning streak the Falcons had been enjoying.

John Henry Lewis In Knockout Win

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 12.—John Henry Lewis, light-heavyweight champion, won a technical knockout over Georgia Simpson, Spokane, in the second round of a ten-round non-title fight here yesterday. Lewis, Phoenix, Ariz., weighed 176 and Simpson 171. Lewis knocked Simpson down five times in the first round with hard rights to the chin, and the Spokane fighter went down three times in the second round before referee Billy Burke stopped the fight.

Simpson was on the floor after the third knockdown when Lewis' hand was raised as victor.

Freddie Miller Meets Casanova

Cincinnati, Dec. 12.—Freddie Miller packed his bags today, preparing to go to Mexico City, where New Year's Day he will defend his National Boxing Association world featherweight title against Baby Casanova, crack Mexican puncher. Announcement of the match was made by Herman Katz, promoter.

CAGE BATTLE GIVES THRILLS

Victoria High Girls Beat Normal in Last Five Seconds 27 to 26

The Victoria High School girls' basketball team defeated the Normal girls 27 to 26 in a thrilling game yesterday in the league between Normal, College and High. Jessie Scott won the game for the High when she sent the ball through the hoop in the last five seconds of play.

Normal School were the leaders, 5 to 4 in the first quarter, but by half time High was ahead 13 to 8.

The final quarter was full of tense moments, and it was anybody's game right up to the last whistle. In the last minute of play Normal took the lead when M. Kenney scored two points, and it looked as though the game was theirs right up to five seconds before the whistle.

Doris Anderson was top scorer for the High School with ten points and J. Paynter led the Normal with sixteen points.

Bob McLaurie and "Porky" Andrews were referee and umpire, respectively.

The teams and scores follow: High—Doris Anderson 10, Audrey Howland-Dixon, Vera Sinclair, Peggy Leavitt, Phyllis Anderson, Margaret Purdy 2, Mary Alexander 4, Daphne Williams 2, Hazel Smith and Jessie Scott 9.

Normal—M. Radcliffe 6, J. Paynter 16, M. Miller, M. Emmoth, T. Aho, G. Muirhead 1, K. Coates 1 and M. Kenney 2.

LES PATRICK ENTHUSIASTIC

Manager of New York Hockey Team Praises His Philadelphia Farm Team

By SAM ROBERTSON
New York, Dec. 12.—When the sad occasion arrives for Father Time to motion the capering Cocks and Frank Boucher to hockey's sidelines, Lester Patrick is confident he will have three youngsters ripe to fill the big hole in New York Rangers' attack.

The silver sage was back in town with this word today after watching his farm outfit in the Canadian-American League, Philadelphia Flyers, perform their puck magic. He is years beyond youthful enthusiasm, so the rail-birds sat up and took notice of Lester's optimism over future possibilities of Neil and Mac Colville and Alex Shibicky.

He said this young trio from western Canada was fast learning the battle-passing made famous by Bill and Bun Cook and the slender Boucher—the puck, who has the puck sort of thing.

Lester bubbled: "Already those kids over in Philly are playing checkers before enemy nets."

The Colvilles are from Edmonton, while Shibicky is of Winnipeg. The old eagle of the National League thinks was particularly enthusiastic about them, perhaps because he sees another headline brother act to replace the Cooks, but he hailed the Ramblers as a fine outfit from the goalmouth to the face. The team is setting a dizzy pace from the Can-Am circuit best of thing.

Patrick said the Philadelphia net-mani, Bert Gardiner of Saskatoon, was clearing better than any goalie in the National loop excepting Tiny Thompson, Boston.

"And the most of the remaining members of the team," he added with a twinkle in his eye, "are 'hot stuff,' too."

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

FLORIDA ONCE EXTENDED FROM THE GULF OF MEXICO TO LABRADOR... 16TH CENTURY GEOGRAPHERS CALLED THE ENTIRE ATLANTIC COAST FLORIDA

New York City, the Venice of America, has 141 islands as compared with the approximately 120 that comprise the real Venice. The main part of New York is itself an island—Manhattan Island—and in it are lakes upon which are other islands; but these account for only a few of the city's main islands. In the city proper are twenty-one islands, but in Greater New York, which includes the numerous islands in the Jamaica Bay district, are 120 more.

Vancouver Lions On Scoring Spree

Whip Seattle 8 to 1 to Increase Lead in Northwest Hockey League; Clint Smith Scores Four Goals; Calgary Tigers Rally to Defeat Edmonton 4 to 3

Vancouver Lions were three points ahead of Portland Buckaroos in the Northwest Hockey League race today and the scoring records of Lion players were considerably farther following their 8 to 1 shellacking of Seattle Sea Hawks in the Washington city yesterday evening.

In another league fixture at Calgary, the home town Tigers staged a gallant last-period rally to overcome a two-goal lead and defeat Edmonton Eskimos 4 to 3. Tigers so the rail-birds sat up and took notice of Lester's optimism over future possibilities of Neil and Mac Colville and Alex Shibicky.

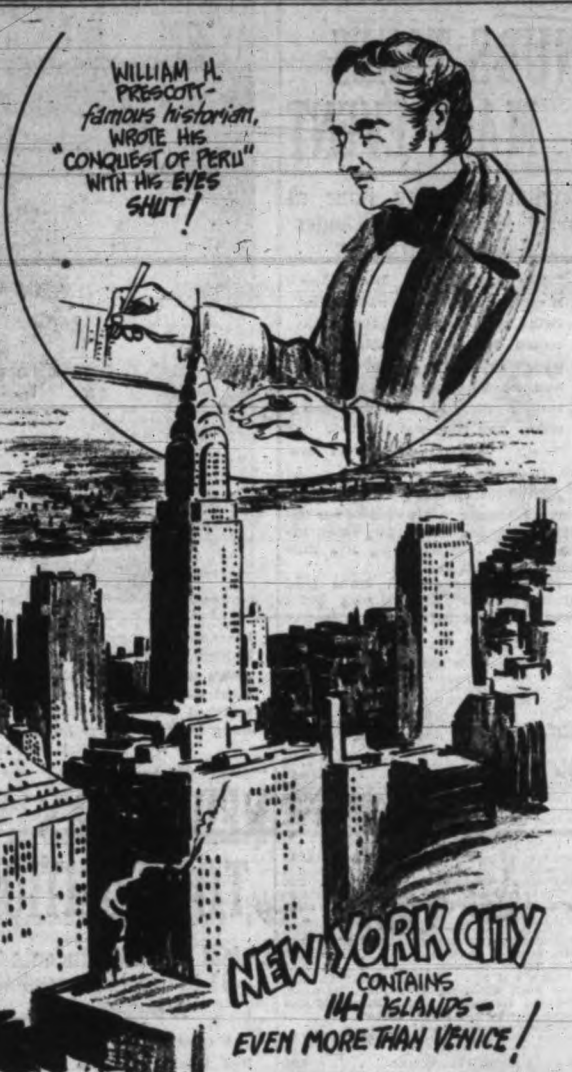

He said this young trio from western Canada was fast learning the battle-passing made famous by Bill and Bun Cook and the slender Boucher—the puck, who has the puck sort of thing.

Lions started from the opening face-off with Smith driving through the Seattle defence alone to score the first goal in less than a minute. Harold Taylor gathered in a pass from Cam Prud'homme to tie the count a minute later but it was Seattle's last threat.

Sheppard passed to Palm to break the tie and Hutton accepted Smith's pass for the third—Vancouver goal, all within the space of seven minutes from the opening bell.

Vancouver added two more in the second period, Hutton passing to Smith and then to Bryan Hestall. In the last session, Palm and Hank Dyck figuring in the first and the other being unassisted. Dyck sandwiched in the other goal with Palm assisting.

Men who are blind resort to raised print and other similar devices of necessity—those with sight find it extremely difficult to master this reading and writing of the blind. It is of record, however, that at least two well-known historians, William H. Prescott and Francis Parkman, used blind writing to record their famous histories. Both had eye trouble, and resorted to this means of avoiding excessive strain on their already weakened eyes.

OLYMPIC ICE TEAM IS SET

Thirteen Players on Canada's Team For Games; Play Montreal Royals

Portage la Prairie, Man., Dec. 12.—E. A. Gilroy, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, yesterday evening announced the line-up of the Canadian Olympic hockey team.

Thirteen players will uphold Canada's hockey standard in the games, with Albert Pudis, Port Arthur, as coach and Malcolm Cochrane as manager.

Seven of the players are members of Port Arthur Bear Cats, under which name the team will play. Four are from Halifax Wolverines and two from Montreal Royals.

The players selected were: Goal—Jackie Marsh of Port Arthur and Daddy Bubar of Halifax. Defence—H. Murray, Montreal, and Ray Milton, Port Arthur.

Centre—Len Sinclair, Port Arthur; Ernie Mosher, Halifax, and Vince Ferguson, Halifax.

Right wing—Alex Thompson, Port Arthur; Dave Neville, Montreal, and Arnold Deacon, Port Arthur.

Left wing—Chummy Lawler, Halifax; Num Friday, Port Arthur, and Gus Saxburg, Port Arthur.

Gilroy said it was possible the team would play one or two exhibition games at Winnipeg and one at Port Arthur before leaving for Halifax where they will embark on the liner Duchess of Athol on January 17, en route to Germany.

Montreal, Dec. 12.—Port Arthur Bear Cats, Canada's Olympic Games hockey team, will play an exhibition with Montreal Royals, eastern Canada finalists last season, here on January 13, it was announced to-night.

For the game Royals will be bolstered by Hughie Farquharson and Ken Murray, now members of Montreal Victorias. They played for Royals last year.

Missing will be Dave Neville and Herman Murray, who have been added to the Canadian Olympic team.

Muzz Patrick In Win By Knockout

Champion Omaha To Cross Ocean

New York, Dec. 12.—William Woodward's Omaha, king of the 1933 three-year-olds, will invade the English turf next year if he has fully recovered from the mysterious ailment that forced his retirement last August.

The stretch-running son of Gallant Fox, which like his famous sire won the Kentucky Derby, Preakness, Belmont Stakes and the Arlington classics, is doing light work at his owner's Belair stud in Maryland.

"He appears perfectly sound," said Tommy Driscoll, foreman of the stable, who will pass on Omaha's fitness to race abroad soon.

CANADIENS TO MEET BOSTON

Features Three-game Card To-night in N.H.L.; Rangers Vs. Americans

It would have been nice of the schedule makers had they brought Boston Bruins and Montreal Maroons together in Montreal to-night. After the brawl in Boston Tuesday the clash would have been sure-fire.

Instead Bruins meet Montreal Canadiens in the Canadian city. The Habitués offer the major league debut of Joffre Deslats, brought back from London Tecumsehs, as a sidelight to the main attraction of the Bruins.

George Mantha and Paul Runge have been added to those on the Canadian sick list. They are suffering from intestinal gripe and their absence has led to the retention of Lolo Couture who was to have been sent to London when Deslats was recalled.

While Maroons are idle to-night they may lose second place in the Canadian division standings of the National Hockey League. New York Americans can dislodge them by defeating New York Rangers in their clash at Madison Square Garden.

Chicago cannot lose their hold on the American section leadership even by losing their game at home to-night to Detroit Red Wings. They are four points away from Red Wings and Rangers.

REVOLTA IN FLASHY FORM

Cards Record 65 to Win Sarasota Open Golf With 72-hole Score of 274

Sarasota, Fla., Dec. 12.—Johnny Revolta, the United States Professional Golfers' Association titleholder, blazed down the stretch in a champion's finish yesterday to break the Bobby Jones Club course record, with a 65 and snatch first money in the Sarasota open golf tournament.

Five strokes behind Alvin Krueger, Beloit, Wis., the fifty-four-hole leader, Revolta swept past the field in a late finish and scored a 274. Victor Ghezzi, Deal, N.J., came home second with 276.

Krueger finally carded a 279 and had nothing better than a tie for fifth money. Paul Runyan, the dependable White Plains, N.Y., stylist, was third at 277 and Jimmy Hayes, Garden City, Long Island, tied for fourth, a stroke back of Runyan, with Bill Mehlhorn, Louisville, Kentucky.

Freddie Miller Defeats Varner

Cincinnati, Dec. 12.—Freddie Miller, N.B.A. featherweight champion, went through ten blistering rounds yesterday evening to a judges' decision over Claude Varner, rugged Los Angeles featherweight contender.

It was a possible bout and a return affair. Miller won a disputed verdict over Varner here a few weeks ago. Miller was trained before the featherweight limit, coming in at 125. Varner weighed 127.

Victoria Heavyweight Puts Howard Langraf, Baltimore, Away in First Round in Exhibition Bout at New York; Muzz Now Works Under Jimmy Bronson

Associated Press
New York, Dec. 12.—Murray "Muzz" Patrick exchanged his hockey stick for a pair of boxing gloves yesterday evening and scored a one-round knockout over Howard Langraf, Baltimore, in an exhibition bout during the inter-city amateur fight eliminations at Madison Square Garden.

The burly son of manager Lester Patrick of New York Rangers, was representing the Rover Athletic Club, of this city, for which he also plays amateur hockey.

He scored an upset, for Langraf came up to the show with an impressive record of eleven straight one-round knockouts.

Young Patrick, who won the Canadian amateur boxing crown at Edmonton last summer, finished the Marylander after two minutes and fifty-eight seconds of rip-roaring action.

Firing long, accurate lefts, he had Langraf's nose bleeding after a minute of boxing. The game American slashed back, peppering Muzz's head with hard rights, but they seemed only to enrage the Canadian.

After a spell of infighting, in which Patrick again was superior, he pushed back Langraf's head with a volley of straight lefts, then drove over a right cross that ended the bout.

Patrick is now doing his boxing under the keen eye of Jimmy Bronson, former manager of Gene Tunney, who retired as undefeated heavyweight champion. Muzz works out for about an hour every day in Stillman's gymnasium when he is in New York. He has acted as sparring partner several times for Bob Olin, well-known New York light heavyweight. Muzz intends to work out with heavyweight champion Jimmy Braddock when the titleholder gets down to serious training again.

SPENCERS IN SOCCER WIN

Defeat Kresges 3 to 1 in Final Hayward Cup Fixture on Wet Ground

A pair of tallies by Reg Mall, one in each half, and a third marker by "Shorty" Collins from a sp-t kick late in the second canto, gave Spencers the margin in their 3 to 1 verdict over Kresges in the final Hayward Cup soccer fixture at the Athletic Park yesterday.

With the Hudson's Bay previously decided as winners of the cup, the fixture held nothing at stake for the two teams and the brand of soccer was rather listless. Kresges were without four of their leading players.

Don Newell accounted for Kresges only goal, scoring in the last minute of play.

Ground and weather conditions were against the players as they took the field to wind up the series for that trophy.

Mall opened the scoring early in the game when he headed a cross put "Red" McMillan in the rival goal. McMillan was safe on other shots put in during the half and the departmentals finished the first half with a one-goal lead.

MORE SCORING
A quarter of an hour from the rest interval Mall broke away again to drive a high shot into the corner of the net and put Spencers two up. "Shorty" Collins added the third counter with his penalty shot shortly after.

Kresges, showing more life in the last stanza, finally broke into the scoring columns with Don Newell tricking his way through the backs and beating Stewartson for the team's lone marker.

Kresges played through the game with only ten men.
D. McMillan refereed.
The teams were:
Spencer—Stewartson; Munroe, Cann; L. Bradley, Chapman, D. Bradley; Brown, Mall, Ciske, Collins and Nicol.

Major Baseball Teams Continue Their Wholesale Trading

Brooklyn-Boston In Latest Deal; Cubs Seek Davis

Two National League Clubs in Deal Involving Six Well-known Players

Chicago Seeking Davis For Klein

Chicago, Dec. 12.—The reorganized Boston National League club opened a wholesale rebuilding campaign today by trading Outfielder Randy Moore and Pitcher Dutch Brandt to Brooklyn for Catcher Al Lopez, Second Baseman Tony Cucinello and Pitchers Ray Benge and Bob Reis.

General manager Bob Quinn of the Braves also announced the outright release of the veteran pitcher Flint Rhem and pitcher John Van de Merve, who was with Scranton, Pa., last season.

Quinn, who resigned as general manager at Brooklyn two days ago at Brooklyn two days ago to take over the general management and presidency of the Braves, said no cash was involved in the exchange.

Their rivals in the last world series, the Brooklyn Tigers, having repaired a weak spot by the acquisition of Al Simmons, the National League champion Chicago Cubs appeared on the verge of doing something along the same line today.

Where the Tigers needed, and got, another strong outfielder in Simmons, the Cubs' most pressing lack last season was one more reliable starting pitcher.

It was reported that the on-and-off deal by which the Cubs would obtain Curt Davis, star right-hander of the Phillies, for outfielder Chuck Klein, was on again.

The most reliable report had it that the Cubs would return Klein, for whom they gave a reported $100,000 and three players in 1933, to the Phillies for Davis. In addition, the Phillies would receive a pitcher and possibly a little money. The pitchers mentioned were Roy Henshaw, Jimmy Souter, and Fabian Kowalk, young pitcher, and James (Tex) Carson, veteran right-hander obtained from St. Louis a year ago.

Blocked at every turn in their frantic attempts to match the baseball shopping spree of Boston Red Sox and the world's championship Detroit Tigers, New York Yankees yesterday ended a hectic twenty-four hours of bargaining by a straight pitching swap with Cleveland.

Under the terms of the deal the Yankees traded Johnny Allen to the Indians for Monte Pearson and Steve Sundra, a Cleveland rookie who pitched for Minneapolis and Newark last season. All three hurlers are right handed.

Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yanks, a little weary of the cold shoulder he has been getting from rival owners each time he tries to buy an outfielder, said he intended to keep on trying. He admitted something more than the acquisition of Pearson and Sundra was necessary to keep even with the Red Sox, who have purchased Jimmy Foss and John Marcus, and the Tigers, who got Al Simmons Tuesday.

FORBID BARNSTORMING
As a result of the action forbidding barnstorming ten days after the close of the regular season, none of the world series players can compete in post-season games as the series taker up the ten-day limit. Club owners, furious because of their stars' barnstorming to Japan and other points east and west, were unanimous in the action.

National League: Adopt rule forbidding all barnstorming ten days after close of regular season. Schedule will be changed whereby all teams will play series, home away, on a 2-3-3-3 basis so as to cut down long trips on road and home. For instance, New York teams would make four, instead of three, western trips, playing two games in the first series and three more series of three games each.

American League outlaws "butterfly net" gloves now used prominently by Jimmy Foss, Hank Greenberg and Zeke Bonura at first base.

Majors act to stop "bootlegging" of broadcasts.

American League made new annual $500 cash award to its leading hitter after close of regular season. Schedule will be changed whereby all teams will play series, home away, on a 2-3-3-3 basis so as to cut down long trips on road and home. For instance, New York teams would make four, instead of three, western trips, playing two games in the first series and three more series of three games each.

American League voted to fine managers guilty of stalling in games from $100 to $250 for each offence at discretion of umpires in charge of game.

Trautman Heads Minor Baseball

Chicago, Dec. 12.—George Millard Trautman, former Ohio State football hero, will pick up where seventy-four-year-old Thomas Jefferson Hickey left off in leading the American Baseball Association as president.

The husky Chicago, known in baseball as the "man without an enemy," was elected to the presidency for two years yesterday after a close battle of votes with Ed Shave, St. Paul newspaperman. Trautman won by a margin of five to three, and the vote later was made unanimous.

Trautman, forty-five, has been a well-known sports figure in Ohio since 1914, when he ended his athletic career at Ohio State. For the last three years he has served as president of the Columbus Club, a farm of St. Louis Cardinals.

RED STACKS IN TOP POSITION

Defeat Chinese Students 32 to 31 in Lead Intermediate A Basketball

A smooth-working Island Yag Red Stacks quintette yesterday evening took over first place in the Intermediate A league race, when they defeated Chinese Students, 32 to 31, at the High School Gym, after a keen battle, in the Victoria and District Basketball League.

Another close encounter on the evening's programme was the senior C tilt, which resulted in the league-leading Hudson's Bay squad nosing out the Doo-Dads, 25 to 24, while the main match saw the Hoyle-Brown quintette humbled by the Tillicums, 38 to 26. It was a senior B match.

KEEN GAME
In the first half play of the intermediate A tangle both teams fought fairly even, with the score standing 13 to 10 at the interval. Play, however, in the final session saw the teams fighting it out at fever heat. The score saw-sawed back and forth, giving one team the lead, then the other. Just before the final whistle, with the score standing 21 to 30 for the Chinese Students, "Chuck" Sharpe dropped in the final basket of the game to give the Red Stacks a one-point decision.

Herbert Chan was high scorer for the losers with seventeen points. Roy Taylor and Sharpe were high for the winners with twelve points each. Wally Lowe, tip-off star for the Students, went off in the first fifteen minutes of play on personnel.

Taking the lead early in the game, Tillicums surprised everyone with their exhibition against Hoyle-Brown. Gordie Moore was the big man of the night for the clubmen. In the first half he scored twelve points and added eight more in the second. Jack Phillips, stalwart guard, was runner-up to Moore with eleven. He secured most of his baskets from fine long shots.

Securing a one-point margin at the breather, the Bays managed to hold off the Doo-Dads and eke out a 25 to 24 decision.

Allan Le Marquand and Wally Stipe refereed. The teams and scores follow:

Hudson's Bay—Baxter (4), Kennedy (8), Fish (1), Clark, Wilkinson (4), Riddick (6), O'Connell (2) and McDonald. Total, 25.
Doo-Dads—Robertson (3), Rawlings (3), Williams (1), Bradley (3), B. Wright (4), F. Wright, Total, 24.

Wager $100,000 On Louis Scoring K.O.

Interest in To-morrow Night's Heavyweight Fight Between Detroit Negro and Paulino Uzcudun Lies in Whether Louis Will Register Knockout

Associated Press
New York, Dec. 12.—A year—almost to the day—after he first achieved recognition as a top-flight boxer, dusky Joe Louis will step in the Madison Square Garden to-morrow night to give his now-famous punch its hardest test on the east-iron features of Paulino Uzcudun.

It was on December 14, 1934, that Joe beat Lee Ramage and flashed into prominence as a boxer. He put boxing back onto a "big time" basis last summer with his bouts against Primo Carnera and Max Baer, and he is expected to draw some 20,000 fans to-morrow.

HEAVY BETTING
Although opinion is almost unanimous that Joe will eat the durable Baque, the capacity crowd is expected to lay more than $100,000 on the line to see if he will be the first man to knock Paulino off his feet.

Uzcudun, at thirty-six, has raked his jaw against sixty-nine rivals, and has come through unscathed. He is sure that Louis will not put him on the canvas for the first time.

Since he has won twenty-one of his twenty-five pro victories by knockouts, his managers and trainers see no reason why his dynamite-laden fists should not continue the knock-out parade against Paulino.

Paulino, a bit surly, much to the delight of his trainers, was equally confident. The Spaniard never has believed Louis is a super-fighter. Paulino says one punch to the right spot can beat the colored lad.

Joe Louis's climb to fistic heights is nothing short of phenomenal. Since he won the Golden Gloves Gloves heavyweight championship about eighteen months ago, the Detroit "Brown Bomber" has been climbing with great rapidity. He turned professional and swept through his early bouts in convincing style, knocking out opponent after opponent.

Mushrooms can crack a thick concrete walk.

DOE QUESTION TO BE FOUGHT

Local hunters will, at the next meeting of the Victoria and District Fish and Game Association, stress the indiscriminate shooting of doe deer. It has been pointed out by many hunters that does are being shot daily on the island due to carelessness on the part of hunters, and left to decay in the woods.

It is felt that it would be better to legalize the shooting of either sex, rather than have this shameful practice continue. Roger Monteith, president of the association, stated today it would be far better to have a law enforced to allow hunters who accidentally shoot a doe to bring it to the game department, where he would pay a small fine and the meat given to some needy organization.

Michal Nemesy of Prague, Czechoslovakia, is serving a term of life imprisonment plus one year.

ADMIT SIXTH THEFT CHARGE

Two Women Plead Guilty to Another Count of Shoplifting

A sixth charge of shoplifting, against Sadie Orr, Seattle, and Patsy Miller, Vancouver, was read in the City Police Court this morning and the pair again entered a plea of guilty through their counsel, P. J. Sinnott. They were remanded until Saturday for sentence.

The two women were convicted on one previous charge to which they pleaded not guilty and pleaded guilty to four others.

The charge this morning was retaining possession of four pairs of gloves stolen from David Spencer, Ltd., C. L. Harrison, prosecutor, told the court the circumstances were similar to those in the other cases, the accused making a small purchase of handkerchiefs at the counter and taking the gloves as she left.

A list of six previous convictions against Patsy Miller was read to the court, including charges of theft, retaining stolen property and attempted suicide. These dated back to 1932 and were mostly in Vancouver. There were four convictions last year and one this year.

One previous conviction of stealing $50 was read against Sadie Orr. "The public prosecutor's completion upon it," said Magistrate Jay after the previous convictions had been read, and he remanded them until Saturday morning.

FAST RETURN ORIENT MAIL

L. J. Lambert Posts Letters From Alameda Nov. 23, Get Replies Dec. 6

L. J. Lambert, businessman of Manila, who is staying at the Empress Hotel, was given fast mail service with the Philippines by the Pan-American China Clipper, he disclosed to-day.

While he was in Oakland, Cal., before coming here Mr. Lambert posted several letters to friends and business acquaintances in the Philippines via the China Clipper, which left the Alameda airport November 23 on her maiden round trip to Manila via Honolulu and Guam.

Dropping a day in time when crossing the 180th meridian on the outward trip the China Clipper reached Manila November 29. Thus, due to the change in time crossing the meridian, the mail was delivered in six days to the post office at Manila.

Mr. Lambert's friends lost no time in replying, for he received a batch of eleven letters by the homeward trip of the China Clipper, postmarked December 2 in Manila and stamped at San Francisco, December 6. The ship gained a full day crossing the meridian on the return trip, the letters thus occupying four days on the 16,000-mile transpacific crossing.

Before the inauguration of the Pan-American clipper service, Mr. Lambert's mail, shipped by the fastest steamship, took twenty days between San Francisco and Manila. He intends to use the clipper mail service from now on.

Since he arrived in Victoria, Mr. Lambert forwarded mail to business interests in San Francisco to be dispatched by the Philippine Clipper, which is now en route to Manila.

OVER 450 NEW B.C. COMPANIES

While the number of new companies formed in British Columbia this year shows a drop of 15 per cent from last year, there has been a stimulation of activity in the last few months, according to a survey made at the provincial companies office to-day.

To date 452 companies have been registered in 1935, compared with 535 last year. The 1934 figure included a large number of mining groups incorporated during the mining boom in the early part of that year.

This was the first indicator of greater activity with fourteen incorporations listed with total capitalization of over $4,445,000.

They are as follows: Silback Premier Mines Ltd., $3,000,000, Vancouver.

Kelowna Oil and Gas Co. Ltd., $250,000, Kelowna.

Alberta Pacific Resources Ltd. (N.P.L.), $10,000.

Sterling Truck Logging Co. Ltd., $25,000, Vancouver.

LAST TRIBUTE TO FORESTER

Funeral of P. Z. Caverhill Held Yesterday; Widely Mourned

To the accompaniment of evidences of respect and esteem from forestry circles in all parts of the North American continent, funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church for Peter Z. Caverhill, formerly chief forester of British Columbia.

Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell conducted the rites at the church, where the thirteenth Psalm and "Asleep in Jesus" were the hymns sung by the choir, and a representative attendance from all walks of life in provincial, civic and private circles.

Acting Premier A. Wells Gray represented the provincial government, and representatives of all eleven departments of the provincial service and the entire staff of the Department of Lands were in attendance to pay their last tribute to an esteemed colleague.

Among the host of beautiful floral tributes were those from Premier Pattullo and members of the provincial executive, departments of the Canadian Forestry Association, Canadian Junior Forestry Wardens, the British Columbia Lumber and Shingle Manufacturers' Association, the British Columbia Loggers' Association, Forest Products Laboratories, as well as from friends.

The pallbearers were: R. C. Sinclair, A. T. Robson, R. V. Stuart, E. C. Manning, H. R. McMillan and J. H. McDonald. From the church the cortege proceeded to Royal Oak Burial Park, where interment took place.

NEW PROCESS AIDS SURVEY

Topographical Mapping of Province Speeded Up; Cost Reduced

The airplane, the camera and a new process developed by the British Columbia survey department have had a great effect in speeding up the topographical mapping of this province and despite limited funds considerable progress has been made in plotting the important areas during the last few years.

Aerial photographs and ground photographs are used in conjunction to produce contour maps. The aerial photographs are particularly helpful because they miss nothing. The aerial camera sees everything. The making of maps with ground photographs alone requires a good deal more triangulation and survey by work parties.

The value of this improvement has been clearly demonstrated during the 1935 season, according to Hon. A. Wells Gray, Minister of Lands, who to-day released a survey of the year's work.

Men and supplies for two survey parties working on a triangulation in the northern part of the province were transported by plane at a fraction of the cost of ground transport. A gap 800 miles in length was covered, connecting with the Geodetic Survey of Canada at Hazelton and Prince George, then over to the Arctic divide to Peace River waters, down the Farnip River and up to Finlay and Ingham, thence over the divide again to the Skeena and to Hazelton.

This triangulation net, it was explained, has fixed the geographical position of numerous points in the great gold bearing area along the Skeena, Bulkley and Ingham rivers through the big game country at the head of the Peace, Skeena, Stikine and Liard Rivers.

ISLAND CONTOUR MAP

The job of producing a contour map of Vancouver Island also moved ahead rapidly during the year, the surveyor-general reported, with two photo-topographical parties working. One covered the coal, timber and scenic areas west of Courtenay and into Butte Lake and Strathcona Park, the other being in the Quatano Sound area on the West Coast. Close to 4,000 square miles of the island's 13,000 have now been covered.

The work being done is of permanent value and will furnish basic information in map form for future development of the natural resources of the province, the survey states.

LIGHT VOTE INDICATED

Civic Election Poll To-day May Reach Total of 4,328 Established Last Year

Good weather had failed to bring out a heavy vote in to-day's civic election up to noon to-day. According to F. M. Hunter, returning officer, only about 1,000 citizens had cast their ballots by that time.

However a steady flow during the noon hour and a further rush following office closing hours early in the evening may swell the total to that of last year when a medium poll of 4,328 was recorded.

William Berry, 3066 Doncaster Drive and Mary Alice Hunter, 3390 Tennyson Avenue, shared the distinction of being the first to cast their ballots to-day.

They were waiting at the polling station when the doors were opened at 9 o'clock and proceeded forthwith to mark their slips.

There was little excitement at the polls during the forenoon. A steady

Carter-Halls-Aldinger Ltd. hold the contracts for the federal buildings in Winnipeg and Vancouver, which are now well advanced, and recently completed big construction projects in Toronto and Windsor, Ont.

The firm is one of six bidders on the new tubular wing for the Vancouver General Hospital, tenders for which are now being called by the provincial government and will close December 20.

Mr. Collard has been inspecting the company's projects while on the Coast. His visit to Victoria, however, is of a personal nature, as his people reside here.

CAPITOL THEATRE

If Lawrence Tibbett acts the role of a young man bound to succeed at the mecca of opera in "Metropolitan," the 20th Century picture, now at the Capitol Theatre, he moves in familiar territory.
Tibbett made his debut with the Metropolitan Opera Company in "Fidelio" and was soon in successive seasons in "The King's Henchman," "Aida," "Traviata," "Peter Ibbetson" and "Merry Mount."
His singing of the starring role "Emperor Jones" won for that opera the greatest success ever attained by a new offering in the United States.

Ditch Digger
Now Director

Hollywood.—Things happen occasionally around film studios that test even the credulity of that saying, "Truth is stranger than fiction." Yet most producers would not think of incorporating some of these incidents of real life in their own motion pictures. Theatre audiences might regard them as too highly implausible.
Among the more recent strange true stories emanating from the film colony is that of a man who labored with his hands, doing manual jobs about a studio ten years ago. To-day he is Ray McCarey, a full-fledged motion picture director, under contract to a great film organization which knew him as a man in overalls not so far back.
William LeBaron, producer, gave McCarey his big chance, when he assigned the young man to direct "Millions in the Air," amateur radio feature.
Success, of course, did not come to

OUT OUR WAY

"King Solomon" Opens To-morrow

"King Solomon of Broadway," Universal's musical comedy drama of the life on the Great White Way starring Dorothy Page and Pinky Tomlin, has been booked for showing at the Dominion Theatre to-morrow. Love cast as the operator of a glamorous night club and dance palace on Broadway, also is supported by Louise Henry, Edward Pawley, the famous gangster of "O-Men," and other noted players.

Gay music, including songs written by the talented Pinky Tomlin, Don Conrad, Herb Magidson and David Klatskin, and sung by Miss Page, erstwhile radio singing star, plus plenty of comedy injected by Lowe and other characters, all go to make a production packed with interest and suspense. Alan Crossland directed the screenplay, written by Albert J. Cohen and Robert T. Shannon, Harry Clark and Doris Malloy.

"Clive of India" At The Orpheum

A new note in the technique of set design was struck by Richard Day, Twentieth Century art director, when he came to create the sets for "Clive of India," starring Ronald Colman at the Little Orpheum Theatre.
For, although the main background of Clive's dramatic life was India, Day's idea was to portray that country from an English point of view, inasmuch as the story concerns British characters.

McCarey immediately. But, while he was wielding his pick and shovel about the studio premises he kept his eyes and ears open. He first laid aside his tools of the ditch to become an assistant property boy. Subsequently he got a chance as an assistant director. Continuing to make good, he came under the veteran eye of William LeBaron. Now McCarey "has arrived."

DIET, CLIMATE, HYGIENE MAY AFFECT SINUSES

Infection by Germ Only Beginning of Trouble Aggravated by Bad Ventilation, Dampness and Other Conditions

By R. MORRIS FISHER

You would be only partly right if you blamed sinus infection of children on such controllable things as bad ventilation, damp houses and clothing, and exposure to cold. The remainder of the causes for this troublesome condition will be found in circumstances that permit the infectious germ to multiply and make things worse.

Such circumstances include deficient general hygiene, error of diet, bad climatic conditions, and not infrequently abnormalities in the structure of the nose, and enlarged tonsils and adenoids.

The sinuses begin to develop when the child is young, but may not attain their full growth until the fifteenth year of age. By the fifth or sixth year, they are large enough to cause trouble if they become infected. Complications may affect the brain, the ear, or other structures associated with the sinuses.

You can tell a child with a chronic sinus infection by the fact that it is pale-faced and easily fatigued. Usually there is a fairly chronic running of the nose and some difficulty in breathing.

The child gets well from one cold only to catch another. There is a loose cough, which gets worse at night and in the early morning. There is also loss of appetite, deficient general development, and intermittent or constant hoarseness.

GEORGE RAFT AT THE PLAYHOUSE

Popular Actor Has Leading Role in "Every Night at Eight"

Offering George Raft in a new kind of Raft role, that of a dance band leader, and presenting for the first time on the screen Frances Langford, internationally famous radio star, Paramount's romantic comedy drama with music, "Every Night at Eight," now is showing at the Playhouse Theatre.
It is the first motion picture dramatization of the present popular radio amateur hour. Alice Faye, Patsy Kelly, the Three Radio Rogues and Walter Catlett are included in the cast. The musical was directed by Raoul Walsh and produced by Walter Wanger.
The story is a 1-1/2, lively romantic yarn of three young harmony singers and a dance-band leader who start as rank amateurs on an amateur radio hour, and soon become national favorites.
Also being shown is Mary Boland in "People Will Talk."

Bruce Cabot At Columbia Theatre

"Men of the Night," featuring Bruce Cabot, Judith Allen and Charles Sabin in the leading roles, is now at the Columbia Theatre.
Written and directed by Lambert Hillyer, "Men of the Night" presents a gripping drama, involving the efforts of "Stake-out Kelly," fearless detective-lieutenant, in wiping out a powerful gang of racketeers. Cabot portrays this part with thrilling conviction, with the aid of Miss Allen in the role of Mary, and Sabin as the dangerous gang chieftain. The balance of the strong cast includes Ward Bond, Arthur Rankin, Matthew Betz, Walter McGray and Mabel Turner.
Also being shown are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson in their newest film, "Babooona."

Wash. Decline Follows Receding Silver Quotations

New York, Dec. 12.—Mining and scattered industrial issues fell back in today's stock market following another decline in world silver prices. The list dipped and rallied at intervals, but there was little follow-through on the upside. The oils gave the best performance.

The close was rather heavy. Transfers approximated 2,100,000 shares.

Demand for the oil apparently was based on hardening gasoline prices and expectations that crude rates will be advanced.

Share losers up to a point of 10 included International Nickel, Anaconda, Kennecott, Cerro de Pasco, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, Montgomery Ward, American Tobacco B, Liggett and Myers B, Case, American Can, Western Union and American Telephone.

Among resistant petroleum stocks were Standard Oil, Consolidated, Tidewater and Superior, Philip Morris, Coty Sugar 1. Gold mining issues stiffened.

METALS OFF AT TORONTO

Toronto, Dec. 12.—Mining share prices were shaken down in heavy selling on the mining department of the Toronto exchange this afternoon. Base metals particularly suffered in the break. In the last fifteen minutes the whole market rallied.

A break by International Nickel to about 4 1/2, brought a drop in Noranda to 4 1/2, off 1 1/2, and Hudson Bay 4 1/2, off 1 1/2. Consolidated and Sudbury Basin to 3 1/2 with a net loss of about 35 cents.

Ventures weakened about 7 cents but recovered, Sheritt about 5, Pender Orellis 5 and Base Metals Corporation about 6. Castle dropped 5 and Nipissing about 10 despite announcement of a 25-cent dividend for the latter.

There were no losses of importance in the senior gold group. Oils were quiet with Royalite holding strong.
